

APWLD Media Fellowship on Digitalisation and Feminist Digital Rights and Justice

DEADLINE: 31 January 2025, Friday

APPLICATION FORM

Contact Information
Full Name of Applicant *in case of the group application, please include the names of co-applicants:  Full name of Co-Applicant 1 Full name of Co-Applicant 2  (Add names as needed)
Name and Address of Media Organisation of Applicant 1  Name and Address of Media Organisation of Applicant 2  (Add names as needed)
City and Country
Email Address of Applicant  Email address of Co-Applicants
Contact Number Office/Mobile Phone
Whatsapp (Optional)
Do you have a valid travel document or passport (Yes/No)

Background

Please answer each question in maximum 300 words each. In case of group application, please make sure relevant news stories from each applicant are mentioned.

Why are you interested in the APWLD media fellowship programme?

Give a brief profile of your work including previous news stories covered as part of APWLD's media fellowship (indicate any relevant news stories that you have covered on feminism, gender, economic and development issues).

Organisational Background

Please answer the question in maximum 300 words each.

In case of group application, please include a brief profile of the media organisation of each applicant.

Word limit 600 words.

Give a brief profile of your media organisation and its reach (geographical area/viewers/audience).

If you are a freelance journalist, please indicate which media organisation(s) will you pitch your news stories to. Give a brief profile of the media organisation(s) and its reach (geographical area/viewers/audience). In case of group application, please make sure the co-applicant also answers this section.

Your Proposal

Please share your initial proposal for the stories that you are planning to produce, including story angles and potential sources. Please answer the question in a maximum of 400 words.

This completed application form should be submitted together with the following documents:

1. Copy of valid travel document/passport
2. Curriculum Vitae
3. Two work samples of any medium in English or with English translations
4. Proposed work plan (use APWLD template)
5. Proposed budget plan (use APWLD template)
6. A letter of endorsement from media organisation if full time employee, or a letter of endorsement from an editor if a freelance journalist
7. Letter from editor to guarantee publication of news stories indicating that the stories will be published as part of APWLD Media Fellowship on Digitalisation and Feminist Digital Rights and Justice. This is optional for freelance journalists

Please send completed forms and other required documents via email with the subject line “Application: APWLD Media Fellowship” to Edz dela Cruz at edz@apwld.org and cc Liani MK at liani@apwld.org, by no later than 31 January, 11:59 pm Bangkok time.

Please note that incomplete applications will not be considered and only short-listed candidates will be notified.