

Asia Pacific Forum on Women, Law and Development

NGO in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations

Asia and the Pacific Regional FEMINIST LEGAL THEORY & PRACTICE (FLTP) July 2025 Application Form

Application Deadline: 12 May 2025

All the information shared through this call for application will be confidential and only used by APWLD for selection purposes.

1. PERSONAL INFORMATION

First Name:		Last Name:
Name as appears in Passport:
Age:		Gender:
Country of Residence:
Nationality: (If you have more than one Nationality, please specify) ¹
Name of Organisation/Self Employed:
Position/ Title:
Postal Address:
Email:		Mobile:
Are you on any of these messaging applications: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Signal• WhatsApp• Telegram• Others, please specify _____

¹ This is for visa letter and travel documents purposes

Asia Pacific Forum on Women, Law and Development

Empowering women to use law as an instrument of change and promoting women's human rights in the Asia Pacific region

NGO in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations

2. BACKGROUND OF THE APPLICANT AND ORGANISATION

- a. What are the main programmes and activities of your organisation? Please name a maximum of three. (Max 300 Words)
- b. How long have you been involved with this organisation, and in what capacity?(Max 300 Words)
- c. What does your role/position in your organisation involve? Please share three specific examples of how your work contributes to advancing women's human rights. (Max 500 Words)
- d. Does your work involve using law and/or legal strategies to advance women's human rights? If yes, please briefly share your latest work (not more than 12 months/one year old) on women's human rights in terms of: issues, human rights focus, law/legal strategies you adopted, groups you work with and outcomes (if any). (Max 500 Words)
- e. Have you and your organisation engaged in policy or legislative advocacy work to advance progressive feminist laws, policies and practices in your country in the last five years? If yes, please briefly share the details of your latest work, the year the work was done and outcomes from it. (Max 500 Words)
- f. Have you engaged in any local, national and regional level campaign on women's human rights? If yes, please give a brief description of your latest work, mention the year of the work and outcomes from it. (Max 500 Words)
- g. Does your work involve using international human rights mechanisms to advance women's human rights? If yes, please briefly share your latest work using human rights mechanisms and outcomes from it. (Max 300 Words)
- h. Have you ever been a participant in any training or workshop conducted by APWLD in the past? If yes, please name the latest three, stating the dates and venues. (Max 200 Words)
- i. Have you participated in any other international, regional, sub-regional or national level training similar to FLTP that is organised by any other groups? If yes, please name the latest three, stating the dates and venues. (Max 200 Words)

Asia Pacific Forum on Women, Law and Development

Empowering women to use law as an instrument of change and promoting women's human rights in the Asia Pacific region

NGO in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations

3. UNDERSTANDING OF WOMEN'S HUMAN RIGHTS AND LAW AS A TOOL FOR CHANGE

- a. What are the two most critical issues affecting women in your country? Please give one example of each issue and discuss how the law and legal system have made the situations better or worse. (Max 300 Words for Each)
- b. What are the two most critical issues affecting women in your sub-region? Please give one example of each of the issues and discuss how the law and legal systems of the sub-region have made the situations better or worse. (Max 300 Words for Each)
- c. State three ways in which law can be used to address the challenges and limitations that women face. Please provide one example from your country and one example from the sub-region that demonstrate the use of feminist legal strategies. (Max 500 Words)

4. PROFICIENCY IN ENGLISH

- a. Please rate your proficiency in the English language (5- excellent; to 1- weak).
My ratings are as follows-
 - Speaking:
 - Reading:
 - Writing:
- b. Will you be willing to translate for a co-activist from your country, if there is a need?
 - Yes
 - No

5. SPECIFIC NEEDS / REQUIREMENTS

- a. Are there any specific needs or requirements that you would like APWLD to consider when organising the training (e.g. PWD accessible room or training materials, any specific medical and/or dietary requests)?

6. PERSONAL COMMITMENT AND ACTION PLAN

- a. What is your expectation from participating in the Asia and the Pacific regional FLTP? (Max 300 Words)
- b. Briefly describe how it will help your work in advancing women's human rights? (Max 300 Words)

Asia Pacific Forum on Women, Law and Development

Empowering women to use law as an instrument of change and promoting women's human rights in the Asia Pacific region

NGO in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations

- c. A personal action plan will be required from all the participants after the completion of the training and based on the individual action plans a follow up will be done with you. Do you agree to coordinate and provide updates on the personal action plan to the APWLD secretariat?

7. INSTITUTIONAL ENDORSEMENT FOR THE APPLICANT

An endorsement letter (not more than 1 Page) from your organisation or another CSO/NGO is needed to support your participation. Please address the following points in your endorsement letter:

- a. The organisation/institution should certify that the person recommended has worked in the area of women's human rights and is committed to applying the core learning points of the training in her or his future work.
- b. How will the participation of your endorsee to the Asia and the Pacific regional FLTP training benefit your organisation?

Submit the completed application form along with the endorsement letter via email to:

Sadia Afrin Khan; Programme Officer, Feminist Law & Practice, APWLD at sadia@apwld.org and cc: Zar Zar Tun, Programme Associate, Feminist Law & Practice, APWLD at zarzar@apwld.org

Please indicate in the subject line: "Call for Application for Asia and the Pacific regional FLTP 2025"

APPLICATION DEADLINE: 12 May 2025

PLEASE NOTE THAT ONLY THE SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES WILL BE CONTACTED FOR FURTHER DETAILS

INCOMPLETE OR LATE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED